Re: United States v. Yew Weng Leong
04 Cr 194 (ARR)

Dear Judge Ross:

This letter is respectfully submitted on behalf of defendant Yew Weng Leong.

I currently represent Mr. Leong on an immigration/removal matter before the U.S. Immigration Court. Mr. Leong was represented on the above referenced matter by Ms. Joyce London.

After Mr. Leong's sentence before this Court, Mr. Leong resumed his education and employment. Sometime in February of this year the Department of Homeland Security (Immigration and Naturalization Service) initiated removal proceedings against Mr. Leong based upon his guilty plea before this Court. Mr. Leong challenged his removal but was ultimately ordered removed. He was physically deported on Wednesday July 12, 2006 at 1:30 pm on a Delta flight out of JFK to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Mr. Leong's Alien number is: A 47-260-227. I have attached a copy of the Order of Removal from the Immigration Court located in Oakdale, LA as reference.

The purpose of this letter is to request permission of and an Order from this Court for the permanent release of Mr. Leong's Malaysian passport. Mr. Leong's passport is currently in the custody of the Pre-Trial Services Unit and, as I have been informed, can only be released upon an Order of the Court. Since the defendant is no longer in the United States and has been permanently removed and is, therefore, no longer on probation or under the supervision of the Pre-Trial Services Unit, I suggest that there is no need for Pre-Trial Services or Probation to keep said passport. I have communicated with Ms. Lourdes Vasquez of the Pre-Trial Services Unit. She has informed me that the passport is in their custody and can only be permanently released upon an Order of the Court. She can be reached at 718-613-2570. Mr. Leong's probation officer is Roula Eleopoulos. She can be reached at (631)-712-6332.

July 14, 2006

Application granted. Pre-Trial Services will release defendant's passport to Mr. MacDonald.

If the Court determines that it is proper and finds it acceptable to Order the release of Mr. Leong's passport, I ask that the Court Order said release to me. I will see that Mr. Leong's passport is given to his parents or, if so Ordered, will mail the passport to Mr. Leong's Malaysian residence.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that this Court Order the permanent release of Mr. Leong's passport under any conditions this Court finds necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
